"Horse Thief" Society Hears of Bygone Days at 91st Banquet

Oysters and Reminiscences Feature Reunion of Horse Lovers.

LAUD LUTHER PARSONS

Horses and oysters were the consuming topics at a meeting of Lower Merion's oldest and longest-named organization, held in Masonic Hall, Ardmore, Saturday night. The occasion was the ninety-first annual banquet of the Lower Merion Society for the Recovery of Stolen Horses and for the Detection of Horse Thieves. Very nearly 200 members of the association from all parts of the Main Line were present.

Horses were the topic of speeches made by Attorney and former State Senator Fletcher W. Stites, of Narberth; Attorney Francis S. Laws, of Cynwyd; the Rev. James H. Feel, pastor of Grace Chapel, Oakmont, and Luther C. Parsons, president of the L. M. S. for the R. of S. H. and for the D. of H. T., of whom more anon.

As for the oysters, they were consumed raw; then stewed; then with turkey and the usual fixings, scalloped, and finally, after everyone had been offered additional helpings by William T. McIntyre's corps of assistants, fried cysters were served.

President Parsons was re-elected to serve his thirteenth term at an election held in the afternoon. Re-elected with him were Vice President Walter Latch, Gladwyne; Secretary Richard J. Hamilton, Ardmore, and Treasurer Dr. Herbert Arnold, also of Ardmore.

Elect New Members.

New members were accepted into membership, as follows:

George B. Matthews, Ardmore; Alva L. Rogers, Wayne; Frank F. Titlow, Gladwyne; John C. Winters; Charles Karcher, Fairview; Charles V. Murphy, Merion Golf Manor; William Atmore; David Rafeld, Ardmore, and Leonidas Beck, Cynwyd.

Shortly after 6 P. M. the banquet began, with an opening prayer by the Rev. A. C. Kan-

Many Residents of the Main Line Are Listed in New Edition of "Who's Who"

The prominence of the Main Line section is reflected in the numbers of its citizens listed in the new edition of "Who's Who in America." Exactly 145 residents of the suburbs from Merion to Radnor are included in this volume which seeks to list those who "distinguish themselves in some useful line of endeavor."

Classifying these names according to three major groupings, Business, Education and Professions, one finds very even distribution with Education and Business tied at 50 each and Professions accounting for 40. Five lists have no occupation given.

With institutions of higher learning playing an important part in the life of the Main Line it is quite natural to expect a large representa-

Talked at 91st

Former State Senator Fletcher W. Stites, of Narberth, who was the featured speaker at the 91st banquet of the L. M. S. for the R. of S. H. and for the D. of H. T., held in Masonic Hall, Ardmore, Saturday night.

CLUB WOMEN HAVE COOKING LESSON

Delicious Foods Prepared and Given Away to Lucky
Winners.

PROGRAM WAS VARIED

On Tuesday, November 13, the Women's Community Club had the pleasure of hearing and seeing Miss Vivian Schaal, of the Philadelphia Electric Company, demonstrate the preparation and preservation of foods.

There was installed in the club-room a spotless white kitchen equipment, including Hot Point range, electric refrigerator and kitchen cabinet and Miss Schaal herself was a demonstration of neat efficiency. She told the club-women the history behind the kitchen range from cave days through to our first clay oven yet in use in Mexico. And what good things she made all the time she was talking. Floradora cake, a dream cake with a merange inches thick, and grilled ham with pineapple and many other novel and interesting dishes made before the eyes of the women. It was a cooking lesson that they will not soon forget.

The foods prepared were given to the several women who were lucky enough to have their names drawn as the winners. Miss Schaal also gave many suggestions for serving dainty drinks using the ice cubes from the electric refrigerator. One especially attractive was colored by using a rose leaf in every cube. The audience was allowed to ask questions and many fine points were brought out in the discussion. The women of the Community Club feel that some man is losing a great chance of securing a fine wife and home maker in not running away with Miss Schaal.

Mrs. Newman in her little talk on books said she would talk fast and say very little. However, she told the women of the fine display at the Library of children's books, and of several adult books of this year, mentioning types for indi-

MANY PRESENT AT LEGION BANQUET

Annual Affair Brings a Big Turnout to Hear Fine Program.

MANY GOOD SPEAKERS

"A nation's power for good is in direct proportion to the respect in which it is held by other nations." Thus spoke General E. E. Booth, assistant chief of staff of the United States Army and its second ranking officer, at the annual banquet of the Harold D. Speakman Post of the American Legion last Monday night at the Community Building.

General Booth was only one of the distinguished guests present; or, as toastmaster and Commander W. Russell Green phrased it, he was the "chiefest of the chief speakers." Also present were Jack Kelly, twice Olympic champion in single sculls and story teller par excellence; the Hon. Fletcher W. Stites, orator without a peer; Captain Duncan McNair, chaplain of the Philadelphia Navy Yard, and the Rev. Henry Clay Shindle, 90-year-old civil war veteran.

Approximately 150 men sat down to an excellent dinner served in fine fashion by William T. McIntyre. All the "fixings" from cigars to nuts and candy were to be had. Songs were led in rousing manner by songleader George Mahl.

A past commander's medal was presented by Harry A. Simpson on behalf of the Post to Robert Carter Collins, who preceded W. Russell Green as head of the local Post. The other former past commanders present to the number of five or six were introduced by toastmaster Green.

The Rev. Shindle, the first speaker, received a tremendous ovation, after which he told an amusing little story containing a dilemma in moral philosophy.

Captain McNair, the next speaker, told at length of his experiences in the navy at the outbreak of the war.

Jack Kelly, of the famous Philadelphia family of Kellys, related how it felt to win an Olympic championship. "To hear the Star-Spangled Banner played in a foreign country gives you goose flesh," he said, "and when I heard it being played after I had crossed the finish line at Antwerp and saw the crowds

To Discuss School Methods and Activities

The next regular meeting of the Mothers' Council will be held in the Narberth School on Monday evening, November 19, at 8 o'clock. The subject is "School Methods and Activities." The program is in charge of Mr. George H. Wilson, Principal of the School and a member of the Executive Board of Mothers' Council, and Miss Ida Munro, a teacher and member of the Program Committee of the Council. This promises to be a most interesting meeting and all Narberth parents are invited to be present. The attractive poster on display in one of the store windows was made by our art teacher, Miss Gassner.

The following children fulfilled the requirements of the Vacation Reading Club and will be awarded certificates and prizes by Mrs. R. F. Wood, Librarian of the Narberth Community Library: Shirley Vincent, Betty Krauskop, Mary Krauskop and Elliot Morse.

A collaborated report of the State Parent Teachers' Convention recently held at Easton, Pa., will be given by Mrs. A. J. Sigel.

Miss McAuliffe's grade, 3-A, now holds the banner for having the greatest number of mothers present at the October meeting of the Mothers' Council. Watch for the winning class this month.

D. A. R.'s Hear Mrs. Copp

The Dr. Benjamin Rush Chapter of the D. A. R. held its stated meeting last Saturday at the home of Mrs. C. Arley Farmer, with the regent, Mrs. Charles Irwin, presiding. A stirring talk by Mrs. Dorothy Evans Copp, State chairman of national defense, was the feature of the meeting.

RED CROSS DRIVE IS NOW UNDER WAY

Hundred Per Cent. Enrollment Sought From Boro Residents.

HEADQUARTERS OPEN

The Women's Community Club is acting in behalf of this greatest Mother—the American Red Cross—in soliciting memberships in Narberth, and is most anxious to achieve a 100 per cent. enrollment. The co-operation of the residents, friends and merchants is making possible the raising of the necessary funds to carry on this great work—the work of national and international relief. The Red Cross will not fail us in time of emergency if we do not fail the Red Cross.

Membership may be had for $1, $5, $10 and $25 and any amounts between these figures are gratefully received as donations. For other details of the work call at the local Red Cross headquarters at 100 Narberth avenue or phone Narberth 4124.

The chairman, Mrs. N. C. Rowley, Mrs. W. C. Newman and Mrs. H. A. Jacobs will be at local headquarters on Mondays from 12 noon until 2 P. M. to receive reports of the solicitors. The room is open to the public from 11 A. M. to 6 P. M. daily. Those in charge of the Red Cross room are Mrs. Neal C. Anderson, Mrs. Arthur W. Burns, Mrs. Leroy C. Douglas, Mrs. W. Lewis, Mrs. J. K. Loughlin, Mrs. Harriet A. Miesusset, Mrs. A. C. Staples, Mrs. Edwin C. Town, Mrs. Perry Redifer and Mrs. H. Gerald Venemann.

The following territory was not mentioned in the last week's list of streets and names. Montgomery avenue will be solicited by Mrs. Harold C. Ferion from Wynnewood to Essex; Miss Virginia Douglass and Miss Ella Ross will take from Essex to Narberth avenue; Mrs. Alfred Y. Reinking from Narberth to Price avenue, and Mrs. Russell Green from Price to Haverford avenues. Mrs. Ferion will also include Wynnewood avenue and Wynnewood Court. Price avenue is to be covered by the Misses Mamie and Odessa Stackhouse, Sabina avenue by Mrs. Howard Cotter; Meeting House Lane and Williams avenue by Mrs. C. A. Hammer, and Mrs. George W. Michener will assist on Elmwood avenue.

Armistice Day Service Was Well Attended

The Armistice Day celebration last Sunday night at the Narberth Theater proved to be a great success. Over 700 residents of the borough turned out to this service which was sponsored by the local post of the American Legion.

The service, presided over by Rev. Robert E. Keighton, took the place of the usual Sunday night services in the various churches. An offering of $166 was taken which was given to the disabled veterans.

The Rev. John R. Hart, chaplain of the University of Pennsylvania, who addressed the meeting, stressed the need of a universal church as one of the most vital that lay before us at the present time. He also made an appeal for a wholehearted and genuine use of emotions, citing the significance such use had gained during the war.

Community singing was led by Bruce Carey, while William Simpkins, Narberth Theater manager, presided over the organ. The other Narberth pastors participated in the service making it a truly community service.

Bazaar Next Week

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Lutheran Church will hold its annual bazaar next Friday and Saturday, November 23 and 24. The date for this affair has been changed from one week earlier as was previously announced. There will be an interesting display of fancy articles and aprons, and on Saturday the Bake Booth will have home baked beans for sale, as well as pigs feet sauce, oyster pies and the usual pies, cakes and crullers. A grab bag, special candies and ice cream will be provided for the children.

CAST FIRST VOTES AT 94

Two women—each 94 years old—cast their first vote on election day, and Herbert Hoover was the reason in both cases. Mrs. Sarah S. Baker, 323 Llan-drimo road, Cynwyd, mother of Mrs. Thomas J. Sinclair, gave address, cast her vote at 1.30 P. M. in the Cynwyd polling place. Originally from Rhinebeck, N. Y., she has made Cynwyd her residence the past three years, and recently took a trip to California and back. Her cousin was a sergeant in the Civil War. The other nonagenarian who cast her first vote a week ago Tuesday—and went Republican—was Mrs. Deborah L. Johnson, of the Windsor-Essex, Narberth.

WATER GETS CLEAN BILL FROM BORO

Narberth Board of Health
Gives Favorable Report
at Nov. Meeting.

SLOAN INVESTIGATED

The water scare of several weeks ago, anent the safety of Springfield water used by Narberth and Lower Merion, which was virtually dispersed by the reversal of the verdict of the Lower Merion Board of Health concerning the bacterial count, received an additional death blow when the Narberth Board of Health, conducting an independent investigation, gave the water a "clean bill of health."

Dr. George A. Sloan, president of the Narberth Board of Health and one of those to conduct an independent investigation made a report thereupon at the last meeting of the Board of Health on November 6, at Elm Hall. Dr. Sloan's report was based on an inspection of the Pickering reservoir near Phoenixville, its source of supply in Pickering Creek and its tributaries, and also his visit to the laboratories of the Philadelphia Suburban Water Company at Bryn Mawr, and a statement from a State chemist's laboratory on six samples of water taken from public and private places in the borough.

Dr. Sloan stated that he regarded the method of collection, the patrolling of the water shed and the abating of any nuisance, which might pollute the supply, the Pickering Reservoir, the sedimentation basins and filtration beds and the chlorinating system, and, in fact, the entire plant, including the Storage Reservoir at Devon to be in a highly commendable condition and that the precautions used and taken in collection and the constant analysis of the water collected at the laboratory in Bryn Mawr were all conducive to the producing of "pure water" for the surrounding boroughs and township. Certain difficulties present themselves in the collection of water in and about this locality because much of the territory from which Springfield Water is obtained is from creeks draining from lands from which a large number of cattle obtain pasturage. Such a difficulty would not obtain in a more mountainous section where grazing is not so prevalent. However, the result of the water shows that the difficulty is overcome. His report also included a statement from an authorized State chemist's laboratory of six samples taken from private homes and public places in Narberth. This statement gave a "clean bill

SEE ONE MILL CUT IN BORO TAX RATE

Recommendation Accompanies
Presentation of 1929
Budget.

LIBRARY GETS GRANT

A cut in the borough tax rate of one mill is foreseen as a result of a recommendation by the Finance Committee of Council last Tuesday night at its November meeting. The recommendation followed the presentation of the 1929 budget which amounts to $83,309, or $700 more than for 1928. The recommendation of Mr. Kaerber's committee was passed unanimously by Council and now goes to the Ordinance and Law Committee, whose duty it will be to draft an ordinance to the effect that the Borough Tax Rate for 1929 be 19 mills instead of 20.

Following the draft of the ordinance it will come up for two hearings before it becomes binding, so there is still a possibility that it may be defeated. If approved, it will be the second slice in the tax rate within the years, as the rate was chopped down from 24 to 20 mills last January.

The borough's financial condition is particularly sound at the present time, inasmuch as the floating debt has been wiped out; there is an unused balance of $10,000 on the street paving bond issue program which will be available for next year; the assessment for next year will be at least equal to this year's assessment and the unused borrowing capacity of the borough at present amounts to $177,000.

The problems before the borough now are chiefly those of operation and maintenance, its plant, as it were (roads, sewers, etc.) is built, and in preparing the new budget the Finance Committee has allowed leeway for unforeseen expenses which may crop up. It was felt advisable, however, in fairness to the taxpayers, to cut the tax rate to the lowest figure commensurate with an efficient and satisfactory running of the borough, and the Finance Committee feels that this can be well accomplished on a rate of 19 mills.

In commenting on the state of

Legion Week Coming

The week of Thanksgiving and particularly the three days immediately preceding it will be celebrated in the borough as American Legion Week. Plans are under way for an observance which will live long in people's memories. The Narberth Theater will be literally turned over to the Post through the courtesy of the management and a special picture, "Four Sons," will be shown for those three days when the entire proceeds will go to the local Post. Further announcements will be made next week.

Goodfellowship Club

The regular monthly meeting of the Good Fellowship Club of the Narberth M. E. Church will be held at the home of Arthur F. Martin, 219 Forest avenue, at 8 P. M., Thursday, November 22. The business session will open promptly at 8.30 o'clock, and as soon as it is over a social session and refreshments will be enjoyed. All members are urged to attend.

When Is a School Not a School? Lower Merion Takes Up Cudgels for Narberth

Narberth's State appropriation for its public school was reduced $1500 this year on a ruling by the deputy superintendent of the State Department of Public Instruction. Notice to that effect and a diminished check bearing it out were received by the borough school authorities late this summer—and thereby hangs a tale.

A letter of protest was mailed the State department, which replied as follows: "The law provides that in fourth-class districts (such as Narberth) the State appropriation shall be either one-half of the minimal high school salary of $1300, or one-half the minimal elementary salary of $1000." The Narberth Junior High School is declared to be not a high school because it has two grades and not three as required; and its teachers, of whom there are 10 listed for the seventh and eighth grades, are held under this ruling to be worth a State appropriation of not $65, but only $50 for each month of the 10-month school year.

This means a $1500 loss to the borough, of which $750 has already been deducted from semi-annual remittance by the State received this year.

Lower Merion is a third-class school district, and to its Junior High School in Ardmore flock the ninth graders from Narberth. Their tuition is paid by the borough, as is that of Narberth students in the three upper grades of the Senior High School.

standing bareheaded I had goose flesh for three days." A choice collection of stories rolled off Kelly's tongue like water over a dam, keeping the gathering in an uproar.

General Booth was introduced by Captain Benjamin McIntyre, of Germantown, who was chiefly responsible for securing him for the dinner. The General pointed out that no country can hope to accomplish anything worth while unless it has the good-will and respect of other nations, and to have these it must be able to enforce it. "Since this is the way things are constituted at present," the General said, "we must guide ourselves accordingly and see that our country gets the respect it is entitled to and may accordingly exercise its great power for good." Following this message the General related some of his experiences during the war which were of unusual interest.

As the last speaker on an exceptionally fine program Mr. Stites made a stirring appeal for world peace based on national self-respect and co-operation. He cited the Kellogg treaty as a factor in the process of outlawing war, which has now been signed by 53 nations of the earth. In closing Mr. Stites quoted the words of Daniel Webster uttered on the floor of the United States Senate long years ago: "Thank God, I am an American."

WHEN IS A SCHOOL?

The township school board became interested in the borough's behalf when Narberth authorities showed Superintendent S. E. Downs a letter from the State deputy superintendent which asserted that not only does Narberth have no Junior High School, but neither does Lower Merion.

In response to a mildly astonished reply from Mr. Downs, in which he called attention to many points of superiority of the Lower Merion Junior High School, and mentioned that the institution has been recognized as one of the best in its class for five years, the State authorities replied that no criticism of the township Junior High School as such was implied in its letter, but that, nevertheless, it is not technically a Junior High School, because it contains only an eighth and ninth grade, and no seventh grade, as is now regarded as customary in the State.

At the November meeting of the Lower Merion School Board, held Wednesday night in the Senior High School at Ardmore, Superintendent Downs read his reply to this ruling: "It was manifestly unfair to Narberth that it should be penalized $1500 a year by the State for sending its ninth-grade students to our better equipped school," he declared, "so I wrote the deputy superintendent in Harrisburg as follows:

"It has been claimed that Lower Merion has no Junior High School because there is no seventh grade; and that Narberth has none because its school has no ninth grade. On the same basis, Lower Merion has no elementary schools, because the traditional elementary school is one of six or eight grades, while ours have seven. . . . Therefore, we have no schools in the township but the Senior High School."

"Reduction ad absurdum," rumbled President William J. Austin, and the board concurred in supporting further protest by Superintendent Downs against the Narberth ruling.

Fathers—Attention!

Those fathers in the borough interested in Boy Scouts, and they should be if they have any sons, and they should be if they have any daughters, are notified that their attendance is desirable and necessary at the annual meeting of the Fathers' Association. It will be held at 8 o'clock in the evening, Wednesday, December 5, 1928, at the Scout House. A brief resume of the 1928 activities will be given, new officers will be elected and plans for 1929 made. The nominating committee has already gotten in touch with various men interested and the slate is made up of our representative citizens. Discussion of property is also listed for this meeting and all that is needed is the votes.

A word to the mothers of Narberth asking that they co-operate in seeing that the fathers get out to vote might be advantageous.

Certified Jeddo-Highland COAL

1858 was the year in which the first ton of Jeddo-Highland Coal was mined. At that time this coal was justly considered the highest quality anthracite on account of its high heat-giving value, low ash content and careful preparation.

TODAY seventy years later, Jeddo-Highland Coal is being mined from the same seams in the same compact property—the original high quality is unchanged—and the most exacting standard of preparation is strictly adhered to.

THE METHODIST FAIR

We invite everybody to come to the Fair. At the bargains we offer we're sure you will stare. So much for your money you'll not get elsewhere: So if you are wise you will buy at the Fair.

The gifts that we offer for Christmas are rare— If you buy them all here you'll have money to spare To pay for a turkey no matter how dear; So we warn you in time you had better buy here.

And you will be helping our coffers to fill To build a fine church on the top of the hill; For beauty and grace no church will compare— So help the good cause at the Methodist Fair.

On the tables the finest of meals will be laid— And you'll never regret the price that you paid. December the eighth is the date for the Fair. We hope for the pleasure of seeing you there.

AT THE THEATRE

"Plastered in Paris," featuring the comedy team of Sammy Cohen and Jack Pennick, is the most profusely "gagged" picture to be shown in a long time at the Narberth Theatre. It plays Friday and Saturday.

Notwithstanding this large number of comedy situations, the picture holds a definite continuity of plot and objective, and is not "just a lot of gags and wise-crack titles pasted together" as many comedy productions are wont to be.

Among the "laugh-a-minute" sequences, perhaps the funniest are where Cohen, gassed in the trenches, is shown in a hospital scene. The film "lap-dissolves" into a "picture" of the interior of his head where a Sammy Cohen devil triumphs over a Sammy Cohen angel and decrees that Cohen's war injury will turn him into a kleptomaniac.

A similarly humorous routine is shown at the end of the picture when the dynamic little Jewish comic gets "beamed" and the shock brings back his brain vision-characters with the Cohen-angel this time the winner when he chases the Cohen-devil out of Sammy's cranium.

More than 20 pretentious sets, including a gigantic buried Roman city, were constructed for the filming of the comedy which was directed by Benjamin Stoloff.

"The Strange Case of Captain Ramper," the first production of the Defu Company of Berlin, a foreign producing unit of First National Pictures, Inc., will have its first local showing at the Narberth Theatre on Monday and Tuesday. The film brings to motion picture audiences one of the most unusual themes ever portrayed on the screen—the reversion of a man to a primitive beast. It is adapted from the stage play by Max Mohr.

The principal role is assumed by Paul Wegener, Germany's leading screen artist, who will be remembered for his remarkable portrayal in "The Golem." The only feminine part is played by Mary Johnson, young Swedish star. Max Reichmann, who directed the picture, is said to rise with it to the highest rank among German film directors.

When "The Devil Dancer" flashes on the screen of the Narberth Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday folk will recognize a familiar touch in the dilt handling of the scenes in situations of this latest Samuel Goldwyn production, which features Gilda Gray. Fred Nibo directed.

Fred Nibo stands with Von Stroheim, Griffith and Brenon as one of the industry's four directors who have a devoted following of the public as large and as enthusiastic as that of any star. Nibo has come to be known as a director whose name always means quality in entertainment. His list of successes proves to be the best advertisement for any new picture he may make. He has produced "Ben Hur," "Camille," "The Three Musketeers," "The Mark of Zorro," "Blood and Sand," "The Temptress," and "The Famous Mrs. Fair."

Fred Nibo is not an accident. He came to motion picture direction with a wealth of background and previous dramatic experience. He was a stage star for many years.

CONVENIENT CO-OPERATION CUTS COSTS FRIENDLY

TRUTH

Few people ever rise above that which they aim. Everyone, whether he be the richest or the poorest person on earth, has a desire for more; but having the desire alone will never accomplish it. If you come to a stream and there is no bridge, or boat, you can think it over, but that will not get you on the other side.

People who are winning in this great game of life have visualized a target called Success and they are aiming at it. That target may be beyond the reach of their present weapon, but they are making one that will—not by wishing, not by complaining, but by working.

Can we please our customers a little better; can we give a little better service; can we smile a little oftener; can we change our mode of thinking? Thought, that great unseen power, which guides us on our journey through life, will guide us to success and happiness, providing we think right.

OPPORTUNITY

The old saying about opportunity coming once in a lifetime is true in many respects. Just think, for instance, you may never have another such chance to win a new Ford Coupe as is being offered you now through the Narberth Board of Trade coupons. Somebody has to win; it may be you.

All you have to do is save your coupons given you with every 25-cent purchase at the Board of Trade stores, many of whose ads appear on this page.

Or perhaps you would prefer a Frigidaire or an RCA Radiola? Your choice is perfectly justifiable and your chance of winning one of these other prizes equally good.

One thing is sure: The more coupons you have the better your chance of capturing one of the prizes. So be sure and ask for your coupons with every purchase of 25 cents or over.

Prize winners will be announced at the Theater on December 26th, which is not so far off, after all, now. Don't fail to be in on this greatest of prize awards.

zinger, pastor of the Ardmore Lutheran Church, of the board of trustees of which Luther Parsons has been a member for 44 years, and president since 1914. The dominie also pronounced the closing prayer for the banquet.

Following the serving of fried oysters, Mr. Parsons cleared the table, figuratively speaking, for the speeches, four in number. His own was first.

"No horse thieves have been detected here last year or any recent year," he declared, "primarily because there have been no horses stolen, and therefore our society has accomplished nothing in that respect. . . . I would recall to you, however, the days when there were no vehicles but those drawn by horses, the days of the harrow, plow, sleigh and carriage. Only comparatively recently have the railroad and automobile taken the place of the horse, and I, for one, am sorry that the change has come about.

"You know, when I was a boy I thought a horse had a soul, and when our dear old horse died I was sure it had gone to heaven. Perhaps it has. . . . We old-timers loved the horse; it was our dearest companion. No wonder that men used to take a horse thief and hang him. . . .

affairs in the borough Burgess Harry A. Frye pointed out that a thing which will come up eventually for settlement is the question of an Essex avenue tunnel. This, the Burgess said, would, of course, cost in the neighborhood of $35,000 and it would be unfair to force such an expense upon the taxpayers of any single year. It would thus have to be financed outside of the Budget, most likely by a bond issue for 15 or 30 years, if it met with the approval of the voters when presented to them in the form of a referendum on the ballot. That such a project is necessary is evident, he pointed out, from the increasingly crowded conditions of Haverford avenue. This, however, it was felt, is a question for the residents of the borough to propose.

A resolution was passed by Council which authorizes the Finance Committee to incorporate in the Budget an appropriation of $2000 for the Narberth Community Library. If the Budget goes through it is expected the said appropriation for Library maintenance will be used when available next year to secure the services of a professionally trained librarian and assistants. The resolution follows:

WHEREAS: The Board of Trustees of the Narberth Community Library has appealed to the Council of the Borough of Narberth for an appropriation of $2000 (two thousand dollars) annually, to provide for the salary of an experienced librarian, and

WHEREAS: The Library has grown in popular favor in the Community, and understood by the Community to be a permanent institution of the Borough, having a collection of upwards of 30,000 volumes annually, and being open to the public on an average of twenty (20) days each month of the year, its work being carried on through a staff of volunteers, and being maintained entirely through popular subscription;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED: That this Council in regular meeting assembled, concedes to the verbal petition of the Trustees of the Narberth Community Library, within the scope of their legal authority, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That this request be referred to the Finance Committee with instructions to provide for the appropriation of $2,000 (two thousand dollars) during the year of 1929, to be paid out of funds collected from taxes.

Building operations continue apace in the Borough as is evidenced by the issuing of 14 permits by the building inspector last month at a cost to applicants of $51 for operations estimated to cost $13,440. Nine inspections were made during the month, 15 of the operations being completed.

Kuneki Girls Bring Gift to Library

The Kuneki Camp Fire Girls came recently to the Library bringing with joyous pride and satisfaction a gift of $30 with which to buy "something" for the Library. This money had been added to their treasury during the last year as the result of their own activities in many lines, and they wished to place it where it would be of service to as many others as possible.

The Library had been cherishing for some time the hope that before long there might be another table in the Children's Department around which the children might gather for reading. Through the generosity of the Kuneki Camp Fire Girls this hope is about to be realized, for although the table did not arrive in time for the display of books during Children's Book Week as was planned, at this writing it is reported as being "on the way."

The names of the Kunekis who made this fine gift possible are as follows: Adele Augst, Lois Rinehart, Betty Magarity, Madeline Cohee, Ruth Supple, Kathryn Augst, Harriet Marsh, Mary Jean Poorman, Anne VanAuken, Alice Edwards and Mabel Millard.

In this connection the Library takes the opportunity of expressing its appreciation of the work of one of its own staff members, Mrs. Jesse Harris, of Merion avenue, who devoted an extra morning this week to preparing

L. M. TRIMS NORRISTOWN

In a dramatic, tense football battle, waged on the Ardmore gridiron, Saturday afternoon, Lower Merion High School emerged triumphant over its traditional Norristown rival when the two schools resumed relations in the sport after an interval of nine years. The final score of this exciting, colorful classic read 13 to 0 in the home team's favor.

The mere score, however, failed to divulge the thrills and frills more than 4000 spectators enjoyed as 22 schoolboys, and the resultant substitutes, battled grimly on the damp soft turf of the Ardmore bowl. Touchdowns by Al Mandes and Peters, and a goal by the latter, came only after many minutes of furious scrimmage, up and down the chalk-ribbed gridiron.

The break came in the third period. From that moment on Norristown reeled and backed toward the goal. Once, twice the cowhide was pushed across that last wide chalk mark as the Lower Merion fans cheered wildly in frenzied glee. Their heroes were picking up where another inspired team—with Les Haws, now an Ardmore attorney as the central figure—had beaten a Norristown team here in the last minutes of a game in 1919 that ended in the break of relations.

Thrice Lower Merion advances were stopped near the ultimate goal. The first stop came in the second period, just as the quarter sensationally came to a close. Lower Merion had advanced the ball inside the five-yard line with a first down.

Time was fast ebbing. Two yards for Peters! One for Kohlas! It's last down and off shoots Ernie Mandes on an end run to the left side, led by a wall of threatening interference!

Norristown fans shuddered as the run was being executed. Then, out through the crowd darted Captain Gianone, who dived through the interference and threw Mandes on the four-yard line. Just as the play ended the whistle blew, announcing the half-time intermission. Bedlam broke loose from the Norristown partisans.

Collegians Win

The Burgess Collegians defeated the McGarry Buffalos on Saturday by the score of 39-30. The Collegians were outplayed in the first half, but came back strong in the final half to score 25 points. Peters tallied three times, while Gallagher, McCormick and Burgess all tallied once, with Peters, McKelvey and Burgess adding extra points. Captain McGarry was the star for the losers, scoring three times, while Witte scored once.
